Summer Streets Is Back!

NYC's Summer Streets is an August tradition. From the Brooklyn Bridge to Inwood, you can walk, run, ride and enjoy car free streets for over 20 miles, including right through the heart of NoHo on Lafayette Street! The next three Saturdays, August 1st, 8th, and 15th, Lafayette will be closed to cars until 3:00 PM. Astor Place is also a rest stop with giveaways and activations. More details about the event here.

Celebrate National Night Out Against Crime With the NYPD

National Night Out is an annual community gathering that brings together officers with the communities they serve. Next Tuesday, August 4th, this event returns, with celebrations at every Precinct in the City of New York. NoHo is split into two precincts. If you are on the west side of Broadway or further west, you should attend the 6th Precinct's event. If you are on the east side of Broadway or further east, you should attend the 9th Precinct's.

Information for both Precinct's National Night Out Events are on the flyers below. If you would like more information, please be on the lookout on the NYPD's website as the date gets closer.

SBS Highlights NoHo BID's Chandler Forsythe for His Work

Last week, the NYC Department of Small Business Services highlighted our own Chandler Forsythe as a capacity building success story. The NoHo BID is proud to work closely with SBS to grow our skills, better serve our neighborhood, and work with others. Read the feature here.
