Our Newest Neighborhood Snapshot is Here

Ever walk around NoHo on a Saturday and wonder where all these people came from? It's all part of the long term neighborhood trends, our evolution post-COVID, and foot traffic growth in NoHo. Read on to hear more about the trends, new stores, and insights moving our neighborhood. Click here to view the Snapshot.

See a Spring Gallery Show Around the Neighborhood

The spring gallery season is ramping up across the neighborhood! There's tons of fantastic shows to see, ones featuring neighborhood legends, cutting edge artists, and so many more. We've rounded up all the new shows to catch on the next nice spring day. Read our guide here.

Help Us Celebrate 30 Years!

2026 is a very special year for the NoHo Business Improvement District. We're turning 30! We want to hear from you - have a great memory or photos of the neighborhood, the BID, our work? We would love to see them and hear from you. Please reach out to us at info@noho.nyc. Picture below is from when the NoHo BID was signed into law by Mayor Rudy Giuliani, Manhattan Borough President Ruth Messinger, Councilmember Kathryn Freed, and Small Business Services Commissioner Rudy Washington.

Remembering Harriet Fields, NoHo's Founder and Champion

As we reflect on 30 years of the NoHo BID, it's impossible to not think about our founding Executive Director, Harriet Fields, who was instrumental to the creation of the BID. What started as a grassroots effort to clean up the neighborhood, turned into the BID. Read on about her legacy here.

Be On the Lookout for the NoHo BID's New Spring Plantings

After a winter that felt extra long and cold, the NoHo BID is so excited that our first round of spring plantings and bulbs that are coming up are now out in the neighborhood! Next time you take a stroll around NoHo, keep your eye out for all the flowers we've planted to help welcome spring.
