Can't see this email? View in Your Browser

Commemorating Thirty Years of the NoHo BID

The NoHo Business Improvement District is so excited to celebrate our organization's 30th anniversary. In this very special edition of the NoHo Voice, we're taking a look back at the BID's history - our founding, our work over the years, and some of the neighbors who've made an impact on the NoHo we proudly serve.

Neighborhood Spotlight: The Founding of the NoHo BID

The story of the NoHo BID begins over thirty years ago, with the passion and drive of a group of residents and neighbors banding together to demand a cleaner, greener, and safer NoHo. After years of advocacy, our organization was born. Read the story here.

30 Memories for 30 Years of the NoHo BID

For the BID's 30th anniversary, we took a look back at some of the BID's highlights, accomplishments, and memorable moments from our history throughout the years. From special events to rebrands, exciting events and occasions we look back fondly on, take this trip down memory lane with us. Read on here.

RSVP for Our Summer Party at Jean's

More than anything else, the most important part of the past thirty years has been the entire NoHo community that we proudly work with. This eclectic community of artists, creatives, small businesses, old-timers and newcomers alike deserves to be celebrated. Join us on Wed., July 15th for our Summer Party at Jean's. RSVP here.

Check Out Our 2026 Annual Report

We're not just celebrating our 30th anniversary here at the BID, we're also looking back at another year of working for our neighborhood! Over the past year, we've been hard at work for the neighborhood, pioneering new programs, and doing out part to keep NoHo clean, green, and beautiful. Read the report here.

Remembering Harriet Fields, Founding Executive Director of the NoHo BID

If you've been around NoHo for awhile, you no doubt remember Harriet Fields, the BID's founding Executive Director. A neighborhood figure with a signature look and fashion sense, a deep passion for community, and creative outlook, her presence still can be felt today. Read on about her in this wonderful piece by her granddaughter.

Renato Vasconez, A Neighborhood Treasure

640 Broadway, for decades, hosted Renato Vasconez. He wasn't just another super, but a true legend of the neighborhood - a storyteller, historian, friendly face, and eclectic individual with an always-bright outlook on life. Before he passed, we sat down with him to hear about his whimsical tales of NoHo. Read more here.

Celebrating Our NoHo Neighbors

Get to know some of the friendly neighbors who've called NoHo home for decades, helped shape our community, and make the neighborhood a vibrant Downtown destination unlike any other.

Wayne Conti of Mercer Books

Kaarin Von of VON Bar

Victor Trager of 636 Broadway

Kervin Simms and the Golden Age of Hip Hop in NoHo

Joanna and Michael of Bond Street Theatre

Joan Melnick and The Evolution of NoHo

Jill Platner, Artist, Jeweler, and NoHo Resident

Bradley Fishel of Renaissance Properties

Stepping Into Sonya Sklaroff's New York

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

RESOURCES

PROGRAMS & SERVICES

Follow Us

No longer want to receive these emails? Unsubscribe.
NoHo BID 636 Broadway Suite 401 New York, NY 10012