Remembering Renato Vasconez

We're sad to share that longtime neighborhood fixture Renato Vasconez has passed away. He's worked as Super at 640 Broadway since 1981, and if you've spent a lot of time in NoHo, you no doubt have run into him. Last year, the BID wrote a spotlight reflecting on his 40 years in the neighborhood. Read it here.

Come to the NoHo Summer Garden Party

Next Wednesday, July 20th from 6:00 - 8:00 PM, join us at the Merchant's House Museum for our NoHo Summer Garden Party. We'll be in their beautiful, historic outdoor garden space as we mix and mingle over wine, light bites, and more. Plus, we'll be raffling off prizes from NoHo businesses! Vaccines are required Please RSVP to info@noho.nyc.

Welcome to the Neighborhood, Slowear

Slowear, an Italian menswear store, recently debuted their global flagship at the corner of Bleecker and Lafayette Streets. The beautifully renovated shop features their iconic clothing, a beauty bar, and more. Make sure to stop by and welcome them to NoHo! Click here to learn more about them.

New State Tax Credit Program for COVID Expenses

New York State has launched a new tax credit for capital expenses incurred by small businesses. Get 50% of eligible expenses, up to $25,000, refunded as a tax credit. Hand sanitizer, COVID tests, outdoor dining costs, and many more are all eligible. Read more here.

NYC Restaurant Week is Back

This year is the 30th anniversary of Restaurant Week, and it's back for a full 30 days starting Monday, July 18th! A handful of fan-favorite NoHo restaurants are participating, and this year options include $30, $45, and $60 lunches, brunches, and dinners. We've rounded up NoHo's Restaurant Week options here.
