Neighborhood Spotlight: Stepping Into Sonya Sklaroff's New York

For more than two decades, artist Sonya Sklaroff has been painting out of her studio in NoHo's iconic Cable Building. Her work is defined by her ability to capture the exciting essence of New York City and its inhabitants through landscape painting. We sat down with Sklaroff to learn more about her love of NYC, what inspires her works, the neighborhood, COVID, and so much more. Read our new Spotlight on Sklaroff here.

Last Chance to Support Paul Sarfo from the BID Clean Team

After an unexpected medical emergency, NoHo BID Clean Team member Paul Sarfo will be unable to work again. We're fundraising to support him. If you've lived, worked, or spent time in the neighborhood, he's positively impacted your life. Any donation amount helps. Click here to give.
