It's been a busy year for the NoHo BID, and we're so excited to share what we've been up to since our last annual meeting. We've launched new programs, grown our businesses community, and had record foot traffic. Sign on to learn more about what we do, elect our Board of Directors, and more. Click here to register.

This Friday, June 21st, NYC will be filled with music as part of Make Music New York. This year, NoHo has an exciting day of music planned for the neighborhood with performances at NoHo stores and a special music parade featuring the neighborhood's own Bond Street Theatre. Click here for more details, and see you Friday!

Tucked away in the Bowery Market, Rasheeda Purdie, the one-woman show behind Ramen by RA is quietly innovating the restaurant industry over some of the City's most incredible bowls of ramen - all inspired by the flavors of NYC. It's been an incredible journey, and is a must try. Read on to learn more.

Earlier this month, Great Many debuted in the neighborhood. This innovative new hair care solution uses non-surgical methods to help people, regardless of gender, get the care they need to meet their hair goals. This new concept is open to all, with transparent pricing to boot. Click here to learn more.

We're some of the biggest fans of NoHo around, but don't worry, there's plenty of room to share the love. Whether you're looking to open a new concept, expand your brand, or want to relocate, we have a space for you in the neighborhood. NoHo's currently got small spaces, flexible leases, and large global flagship storefronts available for rent. Click here to see current retail listings in NoHo.
